

The defining feature of politics in Guinea-Bissau has been conflict and chronic instability (Roque ; Vigh). Understanding what has driven that instability must centre on the co-alescence of elite networks around economic interests. Since independence, the Bissau-Guinean elite has been constituted by a tight web of Page 105 note 3 Afterwards the new Guinean leaders explained the instigation of the coup in terms of their determination to prevent the 'elite from the Cape Verde Islands from dominating the power-sharing arrangement that had worked successfully with Guinea-Bissau after the independence of the two countries in 1974.
