

What is the cumulative installed capacity of energy storage projects?

The cumulative installed capacity of new energy storage projects is 21.1GW/44.6GWh, and the power and energy scale have increased by more than 225% year-on-year. Figure 1: Cumulative installed capacity (MW%) of electric energy storage projects commissioned in China (as of the end of June 2023)

What is the energy storage global conference (ESGC)?

The fifth edition of the Energy Storage Global Conference (ESGC) was held on 11 - 13 October 2022 and gathered over 365 onsite and online participants representing EU and national policymakers, utilities, DSOs, TSOs, suppliers, consultancies, the research community and National Regulatory Authorities.

How can EPC companies improve efficiency?

EPC companies can adopt more efficient practices, such as lean construction (for example, optimizing crew sizes and eliminating downtime and wasted effort), prefabrication of major system elements, simplified bidding, and streamlined interconnection processes. Some of these practices will take hold naturally, as companies gain experience.

How big is China's energy storage capacity?

According to incomplete statistics from CNESA DataLink Global Energy Storage Database, by the end of June 2023, the cumulative installed capacity of electrical energy storage projects commissioned in China was 70.2GW, with a year-on-year increase of 44%.

Where can I find information about energy storage research products?

You can visit the website of CNESA, to learn more about research products on energy storage industry. Please contact CNESA if you have any questions:

Why do EPC costs fall in the base case?

EPC costs fall in the base case because efficient, experienced EPC firms achieve economies of scale and reduce on-site labor by pursuing standardization in design and construction. Alliances with committed developers also provide EPCs with the confidence to invest in capabilities and resources that improve efficiency.
