Should I Choose Renogy or Battle born solar panels?

If you have over 8 or more 100W solar panels, you'd want to go with the Battle Born. This is most likely because of the pouch cell batteries used by Renogy that are more lightweight than the cylindrical batteries in the Battle Born. It's also possible that the Battle Born has slightly more battery capacity.

Which battery is better Renogy or Battle born?

Renogy's 12V 100Ah smart lithium iron phosphate battery and Battle Born's 100Ah LiFePO4 battery are what I am going to review and compare in this post. Related Product: Renogy and Battle Born batteries are great, but I highly recommend the LiTime 100Ah 12V Lithium battery (click to view on Amazon).

How many cycles can a battle born battery run?

It also supports an impressive 200 amp of surge current for up to 30 seconds, and a 1/2 second surge for even higher loads. Battle Born advertises 3000-5000 cycles to 75-80% capacity. Of course, the number of cycles will depend on how fast you charge/discharge the battery and other factors.
