

Who owns the Oneida energy storage project?

Credit: Northland Power. Canadian energy company Northland Power has finalised an energy storage facility agreement with Canada's Independent Electricity System Operator (IESO) for the Oneida energy storage project. The Oneida project is claimed to be the country's largest battery energy storage project and among the largest in the world.

How will Oneida energy storage benefit Ontario?

In addition, the energy storage facility will help stabilize Ontario's electricity sector by providing important grid balancing services. Oneida Energy Storage is expected to provide significant benefits to provincial ratepayers by reducing the need and cost associated with using gas-fired power plants during times of peak demand.

Who is funding the Oneida project?

Northland Power and its partners are currently working with commercial banks to complete the financing of the Oneida project. The project is also backed by Natural Resources Canada, which has agreed to provide C$50m ($37.4m) in funding from the Smart Renewables and Electrification Pathways programme.
