

Who is Pelican Energy Partners?

Pelican Energy Partners is a highly specialized private equity firm led by experienced energy service professionals focused on making strategic investments in energy services and manufacturing companies. Taking the long view on value creation, we seek companies with substantial growth potential. We bring more than just capital.

Will Pelican acquire GSE?

Under the terms of the merger agreement, which was unanimously approved by the board of the directors of GSE, Pelican will acquire all the outstanding shares of GSE for an estimated total cash consideration of $4.10 per share. The consideration per share represents a premium of approximately 50% to GSE's closing share price as of August 7, 2024.

Does Argentina need a new gas pipeline?

Argentina needs fresh financing for several proposed projects, such as a $2.5bn pipeline towards Brazil and a $30bn liquefied natural gas terminal on the coast. Austerity-focused Milei has ruled out public financing. "There's a lot more uncertainty in gas," says Daniel Dreizen, managing director of consultancy Aleph energy.

Why have Argentine energy shares soared so much?

Share prices for many Argentine energy companies have more than doubled since Milei's victory, building on explosive growth in recent years. Shares in Vista Energy, which has benefited from its narrow focus on Vaca Muerta's shale oil to become Argentina's largest non-integrated producer, have soared almost 700 per cent in the past three years.

Will Pelican partner with Ravi & his team to grow GSE?

Sam Veselka, a Managing Director of Pelican, said, "Pelican is excited to partner with Ravi and his team to grow GSE. As a private company, the team will have the flexibility to capitalize on growth initiatives and invest in technology to create value for their customers."
