

What is Bess and how does it work?

This high-tech, latest technology and ultra-fast response battery energy storage system (BESS) is the first of a series of upgrades to the electricity grid in order to achieve a smarter, more modern and cleaner electricity network in Mauritius.

What is Mauritius' long term energy strategy?

This is in line with the Government of Mauritius' Long Term Energy Strategy 2009-2025 to increase the share of renewable energy in our energy mix (electricity production, transportation sector and manufacturing) to 35% by, namely, reducing the country's dependence on coal and heavy oil for electricity generation.

How many Bess installations are there in the CEB?

Today the CEB has two BESS installation of 2 MW power output installed at Amaury Substation and Henrietta Substation respectively. Each BESS is made up of two containers of 20ft housing 10 racks of Lithium Ion batteries for a total energy storage of 1.12 MWh and two power converters with a total installed capacity of 2.24 MW respectively.

What is the second phase of CEB's Bess project?

The second phase will consist of the installation of 14MW BESS deployed in four CEB's main substations namely Jin Fei Substation with 4MW, La Tour Koenig Substation with 2MW, Anahita Substation with 4MW and Wooton Substation with 4MW respectively, with a completion time of 12 months.

The firm noted that the first project, a new 1,000MW solar PV power plant with a 600MWh BESS in Aswan Governorate's Benban area, will mark Africa's largest Solar PV and BESS project. The second project, a 300MWh BESS, expands the company's existing 500MW Abydos solar PV power plant currently under construction in Kom Ombo, Aswan Governorate.

Quinbrook had previously selected GE Vernova to provide the BESS for stage one of the project, which saw a 250MW/500MWh system contracted. Construction of this phase is currently underway. In the final stage of the project, of which there are three, the battery storage system's output will be increased to 2,000MW. Local planning permissions ...
