

What is VPI Immingham?

VPI Immingham is a 1,240 MW combined heat and power plant, rated as one of the most efficient in Europe. It was originally developed by Phillips 66 and launched in 2004. The plant was later expanded before being sold by the US oil giant to Vitol.

How will VPI expand its energy hub?

VPI is set to expand its energy hub by investing in nearly 350MW of rapid-response power generation. This is part of VPI's broader £500 million investment in new generation capacity and upgrading its existing plants.

What is VPI doing with the Viking CCS transport & storage system?

VPI has been working closely with the operators of the Viking CCS transport and storage system, which was recently announced as meeting the eligibility criteria for Track -2 of the government's Cluster Sequencing programme.

VPI is set to expand its energy hub by investing in nearly 350MW of rapid-response power generation. VPI to add 349MW of hydrogen-capable generation to fleet; Expansion is part of £500 million investment plan for VPI; ...

Immingham Combined Heat and Power Plant (also known as VPI Immingham) is a combined heat and power, gas-fired power plant adjacent to the Humber Oil Refinery near to South Killingholme North Lincolnshire, England. The plant opened in 2004 with a 730 MW generating capacity, and was expanded to 1,180 MW in 2009; the station was developed by ConocoPhillips until ...

Web: <https://solar.cgprotection.com>